

Malala Yousafzai's moving speech at the United Nations

Listen to the recording/video and fill in the missing words.

Today it is an _____ for me to be speaking again after a long time, being here with such _____ people is a great moment in my life.

Dear brothers and sisters, do _____ one thing, Malala Day is not my day... today is the day of every _____, every boy and every girl who have _____ their voice for their _____.

So, here I _____ one girl among many. I speak, not for _____, but so those _____ voice can be heard. Dear friends, on the 9th of October 2012, the _____ shot me on the left side of my _____, they shot my _____, too. They thought that the _____ would silence us, but they _____.

And out of the _____ came _____ of voices. The _____ thought that they would change my _____ and stop my _____ but nothing changed in my life except this: _____, fear and hopelessness _____; _____, power and _____ was born.

I'm here to _____ for the right of _____ of every _____. I want education for the _____ and _____ of the Taliban and all the terrorists and _____. I do not even _____ the Talib who shot me, even if there is a _____ in my hand and he stands in front of me, I would not _____ him.

This is the _____ that I have learnt from Muhammed the prophet of _____, and Jesus Christ and Lord Buddha. This is the legacy of _____ that I have _____ from Martin Luther King, Nelson Mandela and Muhammad Ali Jinnah. This is the philosophy of _____ that I have _____ from Gandhi Jee, Bacha Khan and Mother Teresa. And this is the _____ that I have learnt from my father and from my mother.

And I remember that there was a boy in our school who was asked by a _____: "Why are the Taliban _____ education?" He answered very simply – by pointing to his book he said, "a Talib doesn't know what is _____ inside this book, they think that God is a tiny little _____ being who will send girls to the hell just because of going to _____. The terrorists are _____ the name of Islam in Pashtun society for their own personal _____.

Pakistan is a _____ - _____, democratic country. Pashtuns want _____ for their daughters and sons; and Islam is a _____ of peace, _____ and _____. Islam says it is not only each child's _____ to get an education rather it is their _____ and _____. Today, I'm _____ on _____ rights and girls' _____ because they're _____ the most. There was a time when women social _____ asked men to stand up for their rights, but this time we will do it by _____.

I'm not telling _____ to step _____ from speaking for women's rights, rather I am focusing on women to be _____ to fight for _____.

So dear sisters and brothers, now it's time to _____ up. So _____ we call upon the world _____ to change their _____ policies in favor of _____ and _____.

We call upon the _____ leaders that all the peace _____ must _____ women's and children's rights, a deal that goes _____ the rights of women is _____. We cannot all _____ when half of us are held _____.

So let us wage... So let us wage a glorious _____ against illiteracy, _____ and terrorism. Let us pick up... Let us pick up our _____ and our pens, they are our most powerful _____.

One _____, one _____, one book and one pen, can _____ the world. Education is the only _____.

Education _____. Thank you!